ALLEGIANCE

I pledge allegiance to a handful of dust I pledge allegiance to the flag I was born under I pledge allegiance to the planet I was born upon I pledge allegiance to my medical profession
I pledge allegiance to a workingman's hand
I pledge allegiance to Satan
I pledge allegiance to the sun
I pledge allegiance to the womb of the earth

GHOSTS

what do you know of our days of anger what do you know of our days of rage what do you know of years afterwards what do you know of remembrances what do you know of the colonel for a ghost story what do you know of the fog and the mists what do you know of the ghost who scraped the barbed wire what do you know of the ghost who mentioned injuries
